JASPER & SHOALS
MAIL EXPRESS & STAGE ROUTE

A. STEINHAUSER

U. S. Contractor for the Shohals and Jasper Mail Express Route, respectfully informs the public, that he will run a good hack, with an excellent team, and a reliable driver, and is prepared to convey passengers and express matter between the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad at Shohals, and Jasper, or way points, and return on the most reasonable terms. Passengers going East will find this the cheapest, as well as most pleasant route, at all times, as they save several miles travel. Passengers sounding or writing expressage of any kind may depend upon it carefully handled, and prominently safely delivered. His stage leaves Jasper every Friday morning at 7 o'clock, and arrives at Shohals in time to connect with the railroad train either way, returning leaves Shohals at 7 o'clock. A. STEINHAUSER.

"The School Festival."

This beautiful little original Magazine is now ready. It is devoted entirely to school exhibitions, recitations, dialogues, tableaux, comedies, etc., and is destined to have a great popularity. It is the only magazine of the kind we know of, has been greatly needed and meets the want.
It is full of good things for the large as well as for the smaller children—all original, and all first-class. We quote only one exercise as a sample. Send for the Magazine, and enjoy the whole of it.
It is published quarterly, by Alfred L.
Sewell & Co., the publishers of that popular juvenile magazine, "The Little Corporal," Chicago, Illinois, and costs FIFTY cents a year. Single copy fifteen cents.
But here is the sample exercise from THE FESTIVAL:

CHOICE OF TRADES.

A RECITATION FOR LITTLE BOYS.

—o—
BY MRS. M. B. G. SLADE.
—o—

This recitation should be accompanied with appropriate action. Thus, the farmer should make the motions for sowing, reaping, plowing, binding and pitching away; the carpenter for planing, hammering and sawing; the mason for brick-laying and smoothing; the smith for blows on the anvil, and the shoemaker for sewing shoes, etc.

FIRST BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a farmer if I can—and I can!
I'll plow the ground, and the seed I'll sow;

I'll reap the grain, and the grass I'll mow; I'll bind the sheaves, and I'll rake the hay;

And pitch it up, on the mow away!

When I'm a man!

SECOND BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a carpenter, if I can—and I can!
I'll plane like this, and I'll hammer, so
And this is the way my saw shall go;

I'll make bird houses, and sleds, boats
And a ship that shall race every craft that floats!

When I'm a man!

THIRD BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
A blacksmith I'll be, if I can—and I can!
I'll be happy to say that our aspiring young composer has made one grand
step up the ladder of fame, though I fear
such excitement will fearfully impair
his young and tender constitution—not withstanding I learn from some of his most distinguished friends that he is not at all discouraged, but with sweet hopes,
bright anticipations, and broad and
comprehensive smile upon his youthful features, he says had he but the golden wings of a catydid and muscle of the grass-hopper he would fly all over this mighty nation, and some of the most obscure parts of Dubois county, and proclaim science and art are marching on in the golden light of civilization.

FOURTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
A mason I'll be, if I can—and I can!
I'll lay a brick this way, and lay one that;
Then take my trowel and smooth them
flat;

Great chimneys I'll make; I think I'll be able
To build one as high as the Tower of Babel!

When I'm a man.

FIFTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a shoemaker, if I can—and I can!
I'll sit on a bench, with my last held so;
And in and out shall my needles go;

I'll sew so strong that my work shall wear,
Till nothing is left but my stitches there!

When I'm a man!

SIXTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
A printer I'll be, if I can—and I can!
I'll make pretty books, and perhaps I shall

Print the stories in THE LITTLE CORPO-RAL!

I'll have first reading; ah! won't it be fun;

To read all the stories before they are done?

When I'm a man!

SEVENTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
A doctor I'll be, if I can—and I can!
My powders and pills shall be nice and sweet;

And you shall have just what you like,
to eat!

I'll prescribe play for you, and sailing, and such;

And, bove all things, you never must study too much!

When I'm a man!

EIGHTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a minister, if I can—and I can!
And, once in awhile a sermon I'll make,
That can keep little boys and girls awake.

For, ah! dear me! if the ministers knew How glad we are when they do get through!

When I'm a man!

NINTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
A teacher I'll be, if I can—and I can!
I'll sing to my scholars, fine stories I'll tell;

I'll show them pictures, and, well—ah! well,

They shall have some lessons—I 'spose they ought;

But oh! I shall make them so very short!

When I'm a man!

TENTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man,
I'll be a school committee, if I can—and I can!
Once once in a while a sermon I'll make,
Bout once a week I'll come into school.

And say, "Miss Teacher, I've made a rule,

That boys and girls need a great deal of play;

When I'm a man!

You may give these children a holiday!"

When I'm a man!

ELEVENTH BOY. When I'm a man, a man

I'll be President, if I can—and I can!

My uncles and aunts are a jolly set;

And I'll have them all in my cabinet!

I shall live in the White-House; and I hope you all,

When you hear I'm elected, will give me a call!

When I'm a man!

(All in concert, or if they cannot be trained to speak it in concert, so as to make every word understood, let the best speaker step forward and repeat alone, in a distinct voice.)

When we are men, are men

I hope we shall do great things, and then,

Whatever we do, this thing we say,

We'll do our work in the very best way,

And you shall see, if you know us then,

We'll be good, and honest, and useful men

When we are men.

FROM IRELAND.

IRELAND, INDIANA, December 1st.

Mr. Editor: While perusing your paper I find that some individual blessed with intellectual powers, strong nerves, and thoughts sublime, has before leaving these grounds of sorrow, and before leaving down to the skinned milk part of his life, endeavored to get off a few creamy items in regard to the Good

Templars, citizens and business transactions of this quiet and unassuming village. In the light of day this young unperverted and cultivated mind has, with uncles evil, sought to immortalize and distinguish himself in his first composition;

I feel happy to say that our aspiring
young composer has made one grand
step up the ladder of fame, though I fear

such excitement will fearfully impair
his young and tender constitution—not withstanding I learn from some of his
most distinguished friends that he is not
at all discouraged, but with sweet hopes,
bright anticipations, and broad and
comprehensive smile upon his youthful
wings of a catydid and muscle of the
grass-hopper he would fly all over this
mighty nation, and some of the most obscure parts of Dubois county, and proclaim
science and art are marching on in the
golden light of civilization.

As there are no items worthy of note in our village at the present time I will close. I learn, however, that the Shingle Machine firm of Watson, Corn & Co., have had a serious difficulty in regard to their financial affairs, supposed to be the result of bad clerks. I presume our young statesman will at his earliest convenience give you all the interesting items that may occur.

DUDLEY BUSTUP.

"Well There."

Deacon C. of H., and his wife got along together in life as well as the average of couples, though each had peculiarities. The last sickness of Mrs. C. was somewhat prolonged, and was varied by frequent attacks that her attendants thought were each her last. The Deacon, upon the recurrence of these attacks, was always called from his work but after a few of them, he always assumed her and those about her would
